Beyond Content

A high-angle photograph of a large audience seated in a theater or conference hall. A speaker is visible on a stage in the lower-left quadrant, illuminated by a red spotlight. A large red arrow points downwards from the top-left corner towards the speaker. The audience is dense and fills most of the frame.

What is the Wandering Flip-Charts process?

- ★ Is a safe and participatory process to engage many people in productive conversations about specific issues.
- ★ Get a lot of input from a large group in a short time.
- ★ Generates a lot of learning since we get to read and then build on each other's ideas.

Our group norms today

- 1. Generate many responses
- 2. Encourage everyone to participate.
- 3. Embrace diversity, withhold all judgement.
- 4.
